Membership Application Form

IPOA welcomes applications from ethical and professional companies from around the world that provide services in conflict, post-conflict and disaster relief regions. Membership in the Association is by no means automatic. Due to the unique ethical nature of the association, the IPOA Membership Committee reviews all applications prior to deciding on acceptance.

The membership process generally takes approximately two to three weeks and the steps in the process are itemized below. Once the application has been approved, full membership is bestowed after payment of membership dues is received.

1

Step 1

- Complete Forms A and B
- Include Past Performance Package and/or Board Members
- Send completed packaged to IPOA via mail, fax or email scan

2

Step 2

- On receiving the completed application, IPOA will provide copies to the Membership Committee
- IPOA will notify Association Members of the pending application for comment
- The Membership Committee will review the application
- The Membership Committee may request a teleconference with applicant principals to clarify information

3

Step 3

- The Membership Committee will vote on the application
- A two-thirds majority of Committee members is required to accept an application
- The IPOA Executive Committee may also contribute to the process at their discretion

4

Step 4

- Applicant will be informed of the Committee decisions
- Accepted applicants are “Provisional” members until full payment of dues when they become Full Members
- With Full Membership a new Member is eligible to participate in all IPOA Committees, represent themselves as IPOA members, use the IPOA logo in their promotional material and access all the benefits provided by the Association
